GibertQuattro

Enrique Gibert, distinguished advertisement businessman in Mexico has been chosen by COMEPESCA as the person who will have the challenge of putting fish and seafood among the Mexican consumers' preferences. With a trajectory of over 30 years, during which he has obtained national and international awards, among which one of the most outstanding is the James B. Stanton medal granted by the Mexican Advertisement Agencies to Distinguished Advertisers, Enrique Gibert assumes the commitment and remarks on his interest in this new project. 20 ▶

New board of directors for the Mexican Shrimp Council

One year after having launched the "The naked truth about shrimp" campaign during the Boston International Seafood Show 2004, in March, the Mexican Shrimp Council is reorganizing with a new board of directors in which Mexican producers play a key role, leaving Ocean Garden simply as an associate; hence, expecting to increase the number of participating marketing companies within the Council. 33 ▶
